HYMN OF THE WEEK

Take My Life, That I May Be

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your home or small group:

- When have you been chosen for special recognition?
- What difference does it make that God has chosen you?
- When Jesus says that he is the way, he emphasizes a relationship to him that leads his followers to do the works that Jesus does in the world, and "even greater things" will be done by Jesus' disciples (John 14:6, 12). What does it mean to be Christ to the world?

DEVOTIONS

Read: Acts 7:55-60.

Terullian, an early church father stated, "The blood of martyrs is the seed of the Church." That is, those who have witnessed to the faith with their lives have led to the growth of the church. The martyrdom of St. Stephen is just such an example. His gruesome death by stoning led to the exodus of the church from Jerusalem to "Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). His death led to a movement out of Jerusalem that helped fulfill what the resurrected Lord said to the disciples before his ascension. Take a moment to wonder how times of suffering have produced growth and new life for you and for the body of Christ. Close by praying the Lord's Prayer.

SERVICE

People sometimes resist the idea that Christians are a chosen people because it suggests a level of privilege others do not get. However, in the Old and New Testament, being elected (chosen) is about the mission that is given to the elected. In 1 Peter 2:9, to be the "chosen race" means being a "holy nation," that is, a people set apart to serve: to "tell all the wonderful things that he has done." Offer prayers for missionaries around the globe, including mission starts in your own community. Consider how you are part of the outreach work of the church.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

This Sunday is Mother's Day. Take time to recognize mothers, grandmothers, aunts, and all women who have helped you grow and develop over the years. At a meal or other occasion with family and/or friends take turns saying, "Lord God, I am thankful for (her name) because . . ."

Conclude with the following prayer, "Lord God, thank you for the gift of mothers and all women who have made a difference in our lives, including (names). For the care that they have given us and the guidance they have shared with us, we give you thanks. Amen."
