Sunday Worship – The Season of Epiphany Explore the Bible (Judges & Ruth)

Our Explore the Bible readings in February will explore Israel's life after they entered the Promised Land and lived after Joshua's leadership. Sadly, they entered into a reoccurring four-stage cycle of sin-suffering-supplication-salvation. This period of Israel is described as a time where "all the people did what was right in their own eyes" because Israel had no king. Ultimately, the book of Judges reveals that Israel could not govern themselves. They needed God to lead them. The key events of Ruth occur during this turbulent period of the Judges. The book of Ruth tells the story of three widows (Naomi, Orpah, and Ruth) as we discover how Ruth became part of the ancestry of King David. (Personal study guides are available in the back for continued study and discussion with others – suggested donation per book is $10.)

February 5 – Judges 6:11-16, 25-32 – "Timid Warrior" 5th Sunday after Epiphany

God molds His people into mature believers through acts of service to Him.

February 12 – Judges 16:4-6, 13-20 – "Challenged" 6th Sunday after Epiphany

God keeps both His promises and His warnings.

February 19 – Ruth 1:6-18 – "Faith through Trials" 7th Sunday after Epiphany

God can use life's tragedies to bring about His purposes.

February 26 – Ruth 3:8-13; 4:13-17 – "Redeemed and Secure" Transfiguration

God can surprise us with those whom He chooses to bring about His purposes.

Midweek Lenten Services Begins March 1 at 7 PM

Our Lenten journey to the cross will begin with our Ash Wednesday service on March 1 with the Imposition of Ashes. Our theme this year is At the Crossroads where we will meet many of the characters involved in the story of the Passion of Christ who came to a crossroad and had to decide which way to go. Some chose well, some did not, and the stories of each of these experiences at various crossroads will help us know what to do and what not to do when we encounter similar crossroads in our own lives. In the end, each service in the series will reveal in some way how Christ and his cross lead us to follow the path of God's will. We will begin with David's (Confession) on Ash Wednesday followed by conversations with Judas Iscariot (Betrayal), Pontius Pilate (Judgment), Jesus (Compassion), Peter (Declaration), Jesus (Obedience) and then our themes during Holy Week will be Suffering, Forgiveness, Death, and Life.

Each Wednesday will begin with a meal served in the fellowship hall between 6:00 and 6:30 p.m. with our worship service and crossroads themes at 7:00 p.m. Easter Sunday this year is April 16. Please join us as we once again take this important journey to the cross!

PASTOR STEVE'S LETTER: "WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED LOVE?"

The month of February is considered the month of love as Valentine's Day falls on February 14. Millions of couples around the world "fall in love" with each other as they exchange gifts, buy flowers, and purchase boxes of chocolates. Being in love is a good thing, but is not the best thing according to author C.S. Lewis. In his book Mere Christianity, Lewis reminds us what true love is and what lasting love looks like. Being in love is a wonderful feeling, but there are so many things below it and so many things above it. Since "being in love" is based on a feeling, you cannot make it the basis of a whole life. Lewis says no feeling can be relied on to last very long because of its intensity, no matter how powerful it may seem at the time. Knowledge can last, principles can last, or habits can last; but feelings come and go. And so "falling in love" usually does not last. In fact, states Lewis, if the old fairy-tale ending "They lived happily ever after" is taken to mean "They felt for the next 50 years exactly as they felt the day before they were married," then such a marriage would be "highly undesirable if it were." Why? Who could bear to live in that excitement even 5 years? What would become of your work, your appetite, your sleep, your friendships? Remember how you felt and acted when you "fell in love?"

So what is this thing we call love in the month of February suppose to be? Lewis continues his writing by saying that "ceasing to be 'in love' does not mean ceasing "to" love. This second sense of love (a deeper, more mature love) is distinct from "falling in love" because it is not merely a feeling. It is, continues Lewis, "a deep unity, maintained by the will and deliberately strengthened by habit; reinforced by (in Christian marriages) the grace which both partners ask, and receive, from God. They can have this love for each other even at those moments when they do not like each other; as you love yourself even when you do not like yourself. They can retain this love even when each would easily, if they allowed themselves, to be 'in love' with someone else. 'Being in love' first moved them to promise fidelity: this quieter love enables them to keep the promise. It is on this love that the engine of marriage is run: being in love was the explosion that started it."

I believe C.S. Lewis is on to something important during this February month of love. The emotion of "falling in love" is important. It is the cause of attraction between two people. Something special begins with that "explosion" that causes us to do all kinds of things for the other person. We stay up way too late at night, we buy all kinds of gifts, we can't stop thinking about the person, and we love how we feel when we are with that person. And if this "in love" continues, we often pop the question one day: "Will you marry me?" And the exhilaration puts us on a high we call "cloud nine." But this love we feel so strong must develop into a second sense of love as Lewis puts it. A love that will sustain us when we don't feel "in love" and in those times we don't like what the other person is doing. It is the kind of love that God has given us (His agape love). It is a love that we do not deserve, cannot earn, and will not cease to be there. It is a love that we can only learn from God and experience in the life of His Son, Jesus. It is love that gives and forgives at all times.

As we look to observe Valentine's Day this month, think about these words and insights by C.S. Lewis. Don't lament that your "falling in love" feeling might be waning or even gone at this time. There is a deeper love for you to experience and give to the other. We are fast approaching the season of Lent where we walk with Jesus to the cross and learn how deep the love of God is. Walk with Jesus again this Lent. Listen to His heart. Watch how He shows God's love to the world. Feel the power of God's love at work in Jesus. Kneel at the cross in forgiveness and ask God to give you His love and this kind of love in your marriage and relationships. It is a beautiful thing and it is a love that lasts forever and will be the love we will all experience in the life to come. As Jesus said in Matthew's gospel may you hear: "Come to me, all you who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me." (Matthew 11:28-29a) Jesus is inviting you to give your "falling in love" love to Him and learn a new love that will give you rest and joy.

May we all begin a journey of learning from the Master of Love—Jesus the Christ!

PASTOR MATT'S LETTER

"A new command I give to you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." John 13:34

The first time I really heard this verse of scripture was during seminary worship and it caught me off guard. In John's telling of the events of Maundy Thursday, Jesus lays out for the disciples the definition and illustration of God's love. Perhaps too often we miss it but suddenly Jesus, after clearing the room of Satan (who has taken Judas out into the night), begins to teach his disciples with an earnestness in his speech. He doesn't have much time. He's going away and they can't come, but in remaining there is something they have to do. A NEW COMMAND I give you. Wait a minute, did Jesus just override the 10 Commandments, and even His discussion about the two greatest commandments? Perhaps, but it seems that Jesus is making it simple for His disciples (but in God's kingdom simple is hard because it stands opposite of the world). Jesus seems to take everything and bring it down to one simple command – "You MUST love one another." But wait for it, the power ball is about to roll in..."AS I HAVE LOVED YOU, you must love"… now it's not so easy.

We are commanded to love as Jesus loves...there are no exceptions, no rationalization, no bargains. This is Jesus' final command, His final answer about what it means to be God's people. If you are mine – You must love like I love. Human love is imperfect, full of partiality and pride, self-indulgence, and so much more. God's love is perfect, devoid of partiality, pride and self-anything. It is selfless, flawless, and matchless (1 Cor. 13); and how we are to live together in community.

If this is to be the case, why do members who are shut-in, hospitalized, recovering, or sick only find themselves visited by pastors and not all the people of the congregation? Why do the people of God allow disagreement to divide them so that they shut down with one another or pull out completely? Why are we not forgiving of failure when we are the steward who has been forgiven the huge debt but desire to cast others into prison for the tiny debt they owe us? Why do we as the Church – not a building or place, but as the mystical body of Christ – not see how much more there is in common because of Jesus than there is difference in who we are? How is it that Jesus called together the most rag-tag group of men who were so radically different one to another and in the light of His love they all became unified with one vision, to seek and save the lost and to bring Christ to the nations?

Romans 5:8 shows us what it is to love God's way. "God demonstrates His love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." 1 John 3:16 "This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters." 1 John 4:10 "This is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sin."

I guess what I am challenging us with is to be challenged by the command of our Lord and Savior. Love as I have loved you, and not as the world loves. To love as the world loves is easy, it comes naturally and it is flawed beyond compare. Our love needs to become sacrificial as Jesus and the Father's love is – sacrificial. Set aside your schedule and go and sit with another, note someone is sick or recovering and in need and take them food and yourself. We need to break into our own busy schedule, which is mostly all about us, and make more time to invest it in others of the congregation, of all different ages, of all different make-ups. Risk to trust the command of Jesus, and we together will be strengthened and bound together to bear light and life to the world.

God's love to you all.

Childcare: Pastor Matt

The enrollment is shifting a little; Danita is working to replenish the roles. Day to day operations are going very well. Pastor Matt will be starting a "Jesus Time" with children of the center.

The center needs volunteers!!

It came to Danita's attention that we are still not charging what we should because of some paperwork done two directors ago. We need to have an at large congregational member on the Childcare Board.

Please see Danita's notes in the newsletter. The balance of the center is at $13,000.00. Job descriptions are being completed.

Board's response to raffle concern: Greg did have a conversation with the congregation member with concerns. A continuing resolution has been made that raffles will be allowed as long as they:

- have Board of Spiritual Oversight approval
- benefit the ministries of Christ The Servant

This was motioned by Charlie Skoglund and seconded by Brian Anderson. Motion carried.

Worship: Brian Anderson

Lent begins March 1st with the theme of “At the Crossroads”. There will be special music on Wednesdays in Lent. Sunday School will start singing on Sundays during worship. “Now the Feast” will again be inserted into rotation of services. The next meeting for worship will be February 28th at 7:00pm. A new microphone was installed and is working. Pastor Steve will be checking on the banner budget.

Mission and Ministry: Linda Cyboron (taken from notes given to Pastor Steve)

At our meeting on January 10th we talked about being a welcoming church with an active faith. We also asked how we can become more visible. People in the community don’t seem to know where our church is. Eucharistic Ministry information was given to Gina Krohn. Gina will be working on getting this ministry started. How do we engage more of the congregation to participate? Tanzania prayer partners have 19 women involved! Margaret Svitak will be getting in touch with Mama Lui soon. This group would like to contribute to fund raising efforts for the mission trip to Tanzania. Lonnie Svitak and Don Knee will be working together to form a basis for a Men’s service ministry. Meal’s on Wheel’s is happening in February, please see signup sheet in sanctuary. We are also wondering where else we can serve? Northeast college kids, neighborhood and our own college students, were ideas. Our next meeting will be February 12th after church.

Ministry Plans, Pastor’s reports:

Pastor Steve: “At the Crossroads” planning for Lent is going well. Please keep praying for nominations to fill spots on church boards. Those going off the board are Becky Bahnfleth, Charlie Skoglund, and Greg Moen. They will be meeting with Pastor Steve on January 30th at 6:30pm.

Pastor Matt: He will be gone February 13th-18th with the first part of the week spent at the Society of the Holy Trinity meeting in Iowa and training in Columbus, Ohio later on in the week for “Faith Webbing” certification in youth ministry. Pastor Matt will also be gone March 15th-19th for vacation.

Steve Jessen from Board of Administration:

The Board of Administration has been made aware of the “Faith Webbing” training in which Pastor Matt is enrolled. The concept has been grown out of a couple in youth ministry in Ohio that has been using the format for the last 20 years. The mission is to equip people with faith skills. It is very much like Vibrant Faith in that intergenerational concepts are used. The church becomes the surrogate family for its children. Steve came to ask for approval to pay for the certification of Pastor Matt in this program. The cost will be $1,990.00. After board discussion, Charlie made a motion to pay $1,990.00 for this training, Brian seconded. The board voted all in favor with Becky Bahnfleth abstaining. Motion passed, approval was given to pay for this training and certification.

Charlie closed with prayer; he will have devotions next meeting, February 21st.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35pm (Respectfully submitted by Becky Bahnfleth)

I wish to thank everyone who brought us food, picked up our mail, and gave me rides when Wendell was at work. Thank goodness I have a church family. Bless all of you.

Wanda Muhs

We would like to thank Christ the Servant and its family for all the prayers and support shown our family during our precious Renee's illness and passing. Also for the cards, memorials, and other kindnesses shown us. For Pastor Steve coming to her service and conducting the burial was a blessing. May God continue to bless Christ the Servant.

Arlis Lind and Family

Thank you for the pastors' visits and all the food and cookies I received at Christmas-time. Thank you very much!
