ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congregational meeting Sunday, Nov. 24, after worship. The 2020 proposed budget is in your church mailbox.

Thank offerings will be collected today through Nov. 24. Extra jars are available in the back of the sanctuary.

Just a note to say "THANKS" for the cards and well wishes sent to me at the time of my retirement party. I enjoyed your company also for those who attended the party. Thanks again. Mary Ann Knee

Thank you for all the prayers, thoughts, and cards during the time of my brother's loss. Arlynn Boelman

Happy Birthday Rich Jaeger (11-12), Richard Hillrichs (11-15), Andy Wolfe (11-16) and Julie Freese (11-17).

Praise God and thanks to all of you who "Clanked the Cans" to send our Lutheran World Relief quilts to Minneapolis. The total was $109.25 and we sent 27 quilts. Read the quilting article in the December newsletter.

"I Stand Amazed (How Marvelous)"

Confession and Forgiveness

All: Lord, I feel blind. My life seems like a long, dark hallway with no end in sight. I struggle from one step to another, trying not to fall, but sometimes I can't help myself. Lord, swing wide the doors! Open the windows! Let in the new light of Your love. Light the paths that I walk so that I can understand where I have been and so that I can be confident of the direction I am headed. Give me Your gift of faith so that my life is no longer weighted down with sin, but freed up to live life and serve others. Amen.

WL: Our God is a great God! God has provided for our every need. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we are given the infinite possibilities of abundant life on earth and eternal life with God. The darkness of our sin has been changed by the light of the love of Jesus. God's gift of faith is the beginning of a new direction as every darkened corner of our life is filled with light and every unspeakable sin is forgiven. We are free to walk by faith in the light of God's unending love.
