Confession and Forgiveness

C: Lord, we confess our lack of faith. We see a glimpse of what we ought to be, and we know we fall short of the goal. We desire faith that is solid and unchanging, yet we crumble under trials and temptations. We want to be strong, but we know our own weakness. Our sinful condition strips us of any spiritual gain that we humanly devise. Lord, forgive us. Accept us as we are, unworthy for the task, yet gifted for your purposes. Give us your gift of faith. Amen.

WL: Our God is a great God and knows our needs for all areas of our life. God knows our weakness and our unbelieving hearts. God loves us enough to go to the cross to prove it, and in going to the cross provides for the forgiveness of our sin. Now the focus is not on the faith that we can muster, but on the great gifts that are ours daily as we trust. One of the gifts is faith ... faith for the moment ... faith for every trial ... faith for every temptation. Praise God for the gift of faith.

Farewell to "Alleluia"

Exalted word of praise

Which now in faith we forfeit

Throughout these forty days.

Lord, grant us hope and patience

That when the fast is gone

Our songs of "Alleluia"

May greet your Easter dawn!
