From the Pastor – March 2023

We are in the season of light and have heard much about what that means. We are to be light into the world, not just unto ourselves, but move outward and make new patterns, make new ways, become light into the world. You have been challenged to do something new, to feed the community, to think outside the box. Now we will begin to reflect on ourselves and what we do next.

Lent is a time of getting ready for the new life in Christ. We will now be finding ourselves seeking the King of Creation. We will be watching dramas throughout Lent about how it would be if Christ was on trial and what that can mean for our journey. Come on Wednesday, enjoy dinner and the drama. We need help with the meal and volunteers to help with the dramas.

You need to know that I am so grateful for each of you. You have helped me grow, to dig deeper into the Word, and even into who I am. Thank you for just loving and caring to follow the lead of reaching beyond what you thought you could do.

God is opening many doors for us and we need to be ready to step through them. Come each day and be excited about what we find.

God's Peace, Pastor Cindy

CTS Council Meeting

January 19, 2023

Present: Brian Anderson, Pastor Cindy, Linda Sheppard, Tara Peters, Greg Moen, Brenda Beaudette, Linda Shaffer

Absent: Jared Weich

Brian opened the meeting with prayer and devotion.

No minutes from December as that meeting was cancelled due to weather.

Financials: Ended 2022 $756 to the positive. Offerings are trending up for January. There is $650 in the Good Samaritan fund. The council discussed and voted on changes to the benevolence offerings. Tara moved to amend the list and Brenda seconded.

Pastor report: Pastor Cindy proposed that we sponsor a scout troop from Mosaic. Linda Sheppard moved to approve. Linda Shaffer seconded. Motion approved.

Sign-up sheets will be put on the back table for Lenten meals.

New vases were ordered for altar flowers.

The council discussed and reviewed church policies. Revised some of the fees for church and fellowship hall usage. Linda Shaffer moved to approve the changes. Greg seconded. Motion approved.

Final review of policies at February's meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Sheppard
