

All are invited to Christ the Servant Lutheran Church, 1100 E. Benjamin, Norfolk, on September 9, from 11am – 2pm for a celebration/remembrance of that fateful day, September 11, 2001, that changed the world for many of us.

“LAST MAN DOWN”

We will share in a time of worship, of a meal and hearing the story retold by Larry Silhacek of Pierce, who heard the story of Richard Picciotto of what happened that day. Larry has permission to tell the story. This is a true story of survival and escape from the World Trade Center on that day.

An offering will be taken for “Tunnel to Towers.”

As a community, let us come together and share in this time, in this event, in this meal.
